

FOR ALL YOUR
REFRIGERANT NEEDS

Introducing....

The Premier Refrigerants Company for over 45 years

For over 45 years, Refron has been solving and satisfying the refrigerant needs of many thousands of small and large businesses across the United States, including HVAC contractors, facility managers, transportation companies, manufacturing facilities and government agencies. Refrigerants is all we do, so we know how to do it right, saving you time, money, and headaches. Do you want excellent prices, fast deliveries, and no-hassle service? Do you need emergency deliveries, technical support or hard to get products or services? Refron is your one-source answer.

The answer to all your refrigerant needs...

Refron can meet all your refrigerant needs, whether you need CFC's, HCFC's, or HFC refrigerants, a selection of alternative blends for retrofits, extensive refrigerant reclamation services, options for handling or selling your used refrigerants, or technical support and industry information. We can give you next day delivery to anywhere in the United States, from a single cylinder to an entire truckload. Your deadlines are met; your special instructions are accurately followed. Our streamlined computerized systems allow us to give you top quality service and pure product at reasonable cost. Delivery is free too!

Your very own refrigerants warehouse...

Can you imagine what it would cost you to keep large inventories of every type of refrigerant you might ever need available right where you need it? When you choose Refron as your refrigerant supplier, that's exactly what you get, but without any expense to you! Our millions of lbs. of inventory, our over 100 stockpoints coast-to-coast, and our responsive and experienced people are all immediately available to you to meet your routine and emergency needs. It's like having a refrigerants warehouse of your own, waiting for your call.

Your Benefits...

Here's what you can expect, as a Refron Customer....

- ✓ Great Value Excellent prices because of our volume purchasing. Free delivery, from a single cylinder to an entire truckload. Even the phone call is free, via our toll-free number, 1-800-4-REFRON.

- ✓ Quick Delivery Next day delivery to anywhere, from our over 100 local stockpoints coast-to-coast. No need for you to tie up your cash stocking extra refrigerant. We can even drop-ship to your job sites.

- ✓ Inventory Any CFC, HCFC or HFC refrigerant or blend you need, from our millions of pounds of inventory. Don't worry about shortages or special orders. We've got it all!

- ✓ Quality Highest quality of product, from purity to packaging to delivery. All refrigerant is tested dry and pure; all cylinders and valves have been cleaned and inspected. You get maximum protection to avoid accidents or risks. Why take chances with less?

- ✓ Control One-source responsibility, accountability and control for all your purchases, and all your locations. Reduce refrigerant waste and loss, and control your costs to save your company money.

- ✓ Service Experienced and committed professionals quickly handle all your orders and special requests with no waste of your time. Our "can do" attitude will get you the results you need. Don't settle for less.

- ✓ Support Quick and accurate technical support for any refrigerant or retrofit questions you may have. The Refron Retrieversm faxback database service at (718) 392-0097 is the industry's first automated resource for MSDS sheets, retrofit technical literature and government regulations. The Refron Reportersm newsletter provides you with insider information on refrigerant trends and industry events, to help you make better decisions for your company.

- ✓ Options Broadest range of refrigerant management options for your used refrigerant, including the highest buyback values, and the most efficient clean-up or banking options. Plus, our refrigerants analytical laboratory can help you with purity testing.
